SUPERVISORS MEETING.

The County Fathers met this week at the County Seat for the transaction of the business for the County for the month. All of the members were present. A number of matters of importance were disposed of among them being the appointment of J. H. Wilson as County Superintendent of Roads and authorizing him to take charge at once. The only dissenting vote to appoint him and notify all road overseers of his appointment and to take orders from him was that of Supervisor S. E. Kaiue. He declined to make any statement as to why he voted no on the motion.

The office of County Superintendent of Roads created by the County Board should be of great benefit to all and will doubtless prove to be so in case all work connected with the roads is left in the hands of the Superintendent and he is given a free hand in carrying out his ideas without interference. Many have expressed the fear that individual Supervisors will continue to employ and dismiss laborers and give orders which will conflict with the work of the Superintendent.

Some cases of this nature have been done and have been severely criticised.

It is felt that the officer in charge should have full authority to carry on the work without interference and in case his work is not satisfactory he should be replaced by some one who is satisfactory but no one can be held responsible for work that is interfered with by a Supervisor.

Reports from the various county officials were read and placed on file.

George Weight resigned from the office of Humane Officer, Hack, Sanitary and Fish Inspector and returned his badge and commission. His resignation was a surprise to all of the board but as there was nothing else that the board could do the same was accepted.

The matter of the salary of the County Engineer was brought up by S. E. Kaiue who desired to have the salary reduced fifty dollars per month. The matter was deferred and action on the same will be taken up later and if the board decides to make the cut it will undoubtedly mean the resignation of the Engineer.

A BOLD THEFT.

On Saturday afternoon the head luna of Waikapu sent a Japanese to the plantation office for the necessary money to pay off the laborers in his division. The money was delivered to the man who returned to the office of the luna but as he found no one there he placed the money on the table and left. A young woman saw him leave the money there but when the money was sought by the luna it was not to be found. The police were at once notified and a careful search made which lasted all night and during the next day. In the afternoon the money was found by a native boy by the name of Iona who found the money in the same bag in which it was sent out. It was hidden under the cane in a field back of the house.

No arrests have been made and it is as yet unknown who stole the money. The amount recovered was $327.65 which was the entire amount the bag contained when delivered to the messenger.

COMMITTED FOR FORGERY.

A police officer of Nahiku by the name of Kauihou has been committed to appear before the grand jury on a charge of forgery.

Some weeks ago a salary warrant for the pay of Deputy Sheriff Wittrock of Hana was lost and advertised for. When the advertisement appeared in the Maui News, Kauihou telephoned to a native in Kaupou not to try to have the draft cashed but that he would come over and redeem it. The holder of the draft said he would bring it over. The conversation was overheard and the Deputy Sheriff intercepted the man who said the warrant had been given him by the officer in payment of two horses he had sold him.

The endorsements seemed to bear out the claim of the man and the officer was arrested.

He was committed and bail fixed by the Circuit Judge.

PICNIC UP IAO VALLEY.

A very pleasant picnic was enjoyed up Iao Valley Sunday. It was given by Miss Emma Peplowski of Wailuku, a recent graduate of the Normal school. A number of the party visited the table lands while others visited the tunnels being driven by Carl Waldeyer. All were surprised to see the great amount of water rushing out from the tunnel which has about doubled the supply of the stream.

After visiting the various places of interest the parties met at one of the many beautiful groves and a picnic was spread for the hungry members of the party.

Songs were sung stories told and the usual gaiety prevailed. After the picnic all attended the ball game at Wells park where a fairly good game of ball was played.

The party consisted of R. E. Peplowski, the Misses Annie, Rosie and Marie Hocking, Miss Anna Christiansen, Miss Nelson, Miss Ella Groves, W. Whiteside, J. H. Nelson, J. Garcia, E. B. Andersen, F. Sommerfeld, H. M. Coke and two sons Paul and Ellis Coke.

FROM THE WITNESS BOX TO JAIL.

On August the 26th Kame Okamura came to Wailuku and swore to a complaint charging a Japanese man by the name of Watanabe with a most serious criminal offense. She charged that the crime was committed on the 23rd day of August and gave as witnesses two Japanese women who had heard the proposition of the defendant.

The charge was heard this week by District Magistrate McKay and to the surprise of all she testified positively that the defendant did not commit the offense of which she charged him on the day she had the warrant issued.

As she was the only eye witness to the crime she claimed was committed and the others were but corroborative the case against the man was dropped and the woman taken into custody on a charge of perjury. She had her preliminary hearing before Judge A. N. Kepoikai who committed her to the Grand Jury.

WILLIAMS--MACGOWN WEDDING.

The wedding of Ben Williams and Miss MacGown which took place at the residence of Mrs. Dora von Tempesky of Puuomalei on Thursday was largely attended by many friends from all over central Maui.

The bride was given away by L. von Tempesky. She was attended by her sister Miss Morga MacGown as bridesmaid while Mr. C. C. Krumphaar acted as best man.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Cannon Ault of Wailuku.

After the wedding and congratulations and best wishes of their friends the couple drove to Ukulele where they will spend their honeymoon.

In the back of the carriage some one fastened an old broom unknown to the happy couple who probably did not know of its presence until after the end of their journey.

Woman's Aid Society to Meet.

Election of officers will take place and a large attendance is requested.

Expresses Appreciation.

D. H. Kahalelelo has addressed a letter to Hon. A. N. Kepoikai and the bar of the Second Circuit expressing the appreciation of himself and members of the family for the action taken by the Court and bar relative to the resolutions of the bar on the death of Daniel Kahalelelo.
